Since 1894, the YWCA of Racine has served our community, advocating for social and economic justice for all.

Today, the YWCA of Racine operates out of three centers to serve one mission: eliminating racism and empowering women. In diverse neighborhoods, we serve one community. The YW is steadfast in its commitment to capture every opportunity to meet the most vital needs of our community.

Your membership fee allows us to keep our program fees low, provide affordable programming and opportunities to low and moderate income families and individuals, and continue to strengthen and evolve the programs we offer.
